Sally Wiener Grotta: “Living the Creative Life”
The Friends of the Mary Kintz Bevevino Library at Misericordia University host this free lecture by author, photographer and journalist Sally Wiener Grotta. The author of numerous books, Grotta is described as the consummate storyteller for her novel, “Jo Joe,” (2013 Pixel Hall Press) which is set in a fictional Pocono Mountains village and has been recognized as a compelling, richly imagined story that generates open, honest discussions about prejudice, bullying, family misconceptions and the racial/ethnic divide. Grotta’s next novel, “The Winter Boy,” will be published by Pixel Hall Press this fall. Pre-publication reviews have called it “A literary triumph!,” “an intriguing story that’s unlike any other I have read.” Grotta will have advance copies of “The Winter Boy” for sale and will do a book signing following the lecture. For more info, contact the library at at (570) 674-6231.
4 p.m., Catherine Evans McGowan Room on the third floor of the Mary Kintz Bevevino Library

Celebrating Misericordia’s 90th Anniversary
An Evening with TEMPLE GRANDIN
“The World Needs All Kinds of Minds”

Temple Grandin is a professor of animal sciences at Colorado State University with a Ph.D. in Animal Science from the University of Illinois. As a high-functioning autistic person, she has utilized her hypersensitivity to relate to and articulate with others with autism as well as provide consultation and extensive research on the humane treatment of animals. This event is in association with Misericordia University’s Department of Speech-Language Pathology, and the Misericordia Chapter of the National Student Speech Language Hearing Association group. A meet and greet and book-signing session will immediately follow the presentation.

7:30 p.m., Lemmond Theater in Walsh Hall

November 13-15, Thursday–Saturday

“Lend Me A Tenor” Play by Ken Ludwig.
Misericordia Players Theater

Synopsis: It is 1934 and the world’s greatest tenor, Tito Merelli has come to Cleveland, Ohio, to save its Grand Opera Company by singing Othello. When he is unexpectedly incapacitated, Max, the opera director’s meek assistant, is given the daunting task of finding a last-minute replacement. Chaos ensues – including a scheming soprano, a tenor-struck ingénue, a jealous wife and the Cleveland police department.

8 p.m., Lemmond Theater
$5 general admission; $3 students and senior citizens. Tickets sold at the door.

November 23, Sunday

Christmas with The Tufts Beelzebubs

As Tufts University’s oldest all-male a cappella group, the Beelzebubs have always been at the forefront of contemporary a cappella. The Bubs gave voice to The Warblers on Fox’s Glee and performed hits like “Magical Mystery Tour”, “Right Round” and “Sweet Caroline” on NBC’s The Sing-Off. Though their repertoire is stylistically diverse, ranging from Rock to Pop to Hip Hop, one thing about them is clear. Whether performing for preschoolers or presidents, the Bubs have lived true to their motto, bringing “Fun Through Song” to the world since 1963. Let’s sing some Christmas into our hearts!

7:30 p.m., Lemmond Theater
$10 general admission; $8 alumni. N/C MU students w/ID. Register online at cougarconnect.misericordia.edu/bubs or contact the MU Box Office.
