

MEDICAL AND HEALTH HUMANITIES PROGRAM
PRESENTS
M.K. CZERWIEC, RN, MA
NURSE, CARTOONIST, AND EDUCATOR

Drawing on Disability: Graphic Medicine

M.K. is the creator of Taking Turns: Stories from HIV/Aids Care Unit 371 (Penn State University Press, 2017) and a co-author of the Graphic Medicine Manifesto (PSU Press, 2014). She co-manages www.GraphicMedicine.org. Her next book will be the edited anthology, Menopause: A Comic Treatment. To view more of her bio and publications, go to www.comicnurse.com.

Monday, November 18 • 7:00 p.m.

Sandy and Marlene Insalaco Hall
Rooms 218 (Huntzinger) and 219 (Alden)

This speaking engagement is free and open to the public.

This speaking engagement is part of the series Intersections: (Dis)ability and the Arts.

Sponsored by Soyka Fund for the Humanities.

MISERICORDIA UNIVERSITY

