

Misericordia University
Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship – 2017

Frequently Asked Questions: Students

How do I submit my application?
Is there a deadline for application submission?
How are the research proposals selected?
When will the selected proposals be announced?
If my proposal was not selected, will I be notified as to why it was not selected?
Is there a schedule of events during the summer research program?
What is expected of researchers selected?
How do I register for ADP payroll system?
How much is the stipend?
Are there other benefits such as housing?
When and how will the stipend be paid?
How many hours of research related work is required?
What is expected for the October 2017 presentation, from the researchers?
Who do the researchers present to, during the October 2017 presentation?
Do I have to take a class?
Can I get course credit for participating?

Frequently Asked Questions: Faculty

How are the applications submitted?
Can faculty select the student researcher?
Are faculty compensated?
Is there a deadline for application submission?
How are the research proposals selected?
When will the selected proposals be announced?
If my proposal was not selected, will I be notified as to why it was not selected?
Is there a schedule of events during the summer research program?
Is IRB approval required for my research project?
How many hours of student research related work is required?
What is expected for the October 2017 presentation, from the researchers?
Who do the researchers present to, during the October 2017 presentation?
Can faculty collaborate on projects and share students and resources?
Must research result in published scholarship within a given time frame?
Must the project be related to my ongoing research agenda?